Nuventive Achieves SOC 2 Type II Compliance for the Third Consecutive Year, Highlighting Data Security and Privacy

Independent Audit Shows Data-Informed Improvement Software Leader Achieves the Gold Standard for Data Security and Compliance

PITTSBURGH, Penn. – Feb. 22, 2024 – Nuventive, the data-informed improvement company, announced today it has once more achieved System and Organization Controls (SOC 2) Type II compliance, widely regarded as the gold standard for data security.

“We are thrilled to achieve SOC 2 Type II compliance for the third year in a row. This reaffirms our solid commitment to protect our clients’ sensitive data,” said Gary M. Choban, Nuventive’s senior vice president, chief product officer and security officer. “Nuventive remains committed to helping our customers use the information they have at hand to foster a culture of continuous improvement and innovation, while ensuring security and privacy compliance.”

Leading cybersecurity assessment firm A-LIGN validated that Nuventive’s practices and controls meet the Trust Services Principles and Criteria for security, availability, and privacy.

Established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the SOC 2 examination is designed for organizations of any size, regardless of industry and scope, by ensuring the personal assets of their potential and existing customers are protected. SOC 2 reports are recognized globally and affirm that a company’s infrastructure, software, people, data, policies, procedures, and operations have been formally reviewed.

Assisting Nuventive through the process was cybersecurity and data privacy consultancy Zaviant. According to Sam Mitchell, chief revenue officer at Zaviant, "Nuventive consistently places the utmost importance on maintaining a high standard for data security and privacy. Their steadfast commitment to safeguarding customer information remains unwavering."

Nuventive will make the report available to current or potential customers upon execution of a non-disclosure agreement (NDA). Contact security@nuventive.com for more details.
