Nuventive and Jenzabar Partner to Help Colleges and Universities Accelerate Data-Informed Improvement and Align Priorities

Partnership Empowers Institutions to Deliver Favorable Outcomes Across Strategic Planning, Student Learning Assessment, Program Review, and More

PITTSBURGH and BOSTON – October 21, 2025 – Nuventive, the data-informed improvement company™, and Jenzabar, Inc., a leading provider of higher education technology solutions, today announced a new strategic partnership. The collaboration empowers colleges and universities to better achieve their strategic goals and align priorities by presenting Jenzabar's analytics dashboards alongside their integrated plans in the Nuventive Improvement Platform.

Presented at JAM 2025, Jenzabar's annual meeting that most recently took place in Nashville, Tenn., the partnership enables higher education institutions to surface Jenzabar data in planning, assessment, and decision-making processes managed in Nuventive. Institutions can now access insights through an intuitive front-end that links metrics to actions, making it easier for leaders to achieve and promote measurable progress on key initiatives.

"There's never been a better time to deliver measurable results in higher education," said David Raney, CEO of Nuventive. "Institutions already using Jenzabar can now extend the impact of their data by putting it to work in transformative strategic planning, program review, and improvement initiatives."

"We're excited to collaborate with Nuventive to help higher education leaders better connect data insights to strategic action," said Sam Burgio, President and COO of Jenzabar. "This partnership supports our shared vision of empowering institutions to thrive in a rapidly changing environment by turning information into actionable intelligence."
